

Residential Homes

Smoke/Carbon Monoxide & Heat Detectors

The following information is required:

- Building Permit
- Electrical Permit
- 4 sets of house plans – every level and room identified and labeled for use
- Contractors must provide an owner's letter of permission.
 - Letter of permission forms available on line.
- Applicants/Homeowners must submit a completed workman's comp affidavit.
 - In some cases a certificate of insurance may be required.
- Work to be inspected by electrical/ building & fire inspectors.
- Electrical inspections are by written request only.

Completed applications are reviewed by the both the local building inspector and the fire prevention officer. Representatives of the fire departments are available at 200 Main Street Monday – Friday 8:00 – 9:30 AM.

