Welcome to Cape Cod's Largest Town!

Our seven villages feature art, culture, and historic gems, complete with seaside charm.

SEVEN VILLAGES • ONE TOWN

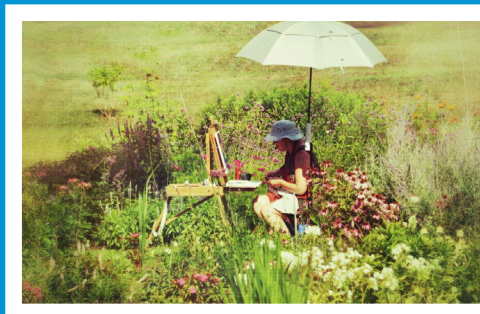

There are fifteen towns on Cape Cod. Barnstable is the largest, and has seven villages: Barnstable, Centerville, Cotuit, Hyannis, Osterville, Marstons Mills and West Barnstable.

Each of the seven villages in the town of Barnstable features art, culture and historic gems, all with seaside charm. Two of the villages, Hyannis and Barnstable Village have state designated cultural districts. There are smaller but equally as vibrant arts communities in each of the seven villages of the Town of Barnstable. The town is home to the Cape Cod Symphony, Cape Cod Conservatory, Arts Foundation of Cape Cod, and Cotuit Center for the Arts. Museums, theaters, performance spaces, historical societies and places of historical significance are plentiful in the seven villages.

Located on the Hyannis HyArts campus, the rustic Guyer Barn provides the perfect creative environment for artists in all disciplines. The year round community art space supports and promotes the arts.

Hyannis

West Barnstable

The golden hours of morning and evening light up beautiful vistas, unique homesteads and stunning views everywhere you look.

Indoors and out, there is always something going on, in and around town. From free yoga classes to concerts, festivals, theater, dance and more, find something to do every day of the year.

Hyannis Village Green

Artist Shanties, Hyannis Harbor

Take a seaside stroll along Hyannis Harbor and the artist shanties and working water front. You are never far from scenic water views in all seven villages.
